At first, she wasn't happy about it, but she was skint as well!
So, I've opened a cafe through a proposition that she's made!
And I've come all the way from England for maid training in Japan
Heya! My name is Shiori Charlotte K Sargent
With my employees relying on me, I have become the talk of the town!
Now, the cafe's been a massive success!
Then I met this godsent secondary school girl, when I hadn't a clue what to do
But there wasn't much need for maids here
